[illegible] DISPATCHES TO THE [illegible]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 6

EASTERN STATES

Erie and New York Central R R Consolidation

NEW YORK, July 5.—The New York Times of the 6th will contain full particulars of the consolidation of the Erie and New York Central Railroad Company under the direction of the English stockholders. Commodore Vanderbilt President with unrestricted powers. Freight and passage tariff west and north are to be raised.

Vanderbilt to be President of Erie

NEW YORK, July 6.—Nothing definite transpired concerning the secret meeting of the Erie Railroad directors held yesterday. The Times has information of the selection of Vanderbilt as President of the Erie Railroad which is based upon a mere report although it is well known that that gentleman would like to have Erie under his control.

Strikers Resuming Work

NEW YORK, July 5.—Workmen in the sewing machine factories all returned to night on the old terms. The marble cutters and cabinet makers still hold out. A large number of metal workers have resumed on the old basis.

Accidents Casualties Crimes and Disasters

SEYMOUR (Indiana) July 5.—Last night a man lighting the hall here for a theatrical performance let fall a kerosene lamp amidst a group of children. The lamp broke and the oil saturated their clothing and ignited and before the flames could be extinguished three of them including a little girl, were burned so badly that they died in a few hours.

BOSTON, July 5.—Four men took refuge yesterday, during a thunder storm in a building on Watt's Island. The lightning struck the building and killed three of them.

ALLIANCE (Ohio) July 5.—A coal mine, two miles north of Limaville took fire on Wednesday evening. Twenty men and one boy were at work in the mine at the time. Eleven men escaped. The others together with the boy perished. Seven bodies so far have been recovered. The fire has subsided.

NEW YORK July 5.—The Coroner's jury in the case of the two victims of the South Side disaster place the responsibility of the accident on the conductor, Rathbone, and engineer Scott through gross carelessness and violation of orders. An order has been issued for their arrest.

NEW YORK July 5.—Budd Doble offers to match Goldsmith Maid against Bonner's horses Dexter and Joe Elliot, for the best three in five heats up, subject to all rules for $5,000 and $50,000, on any Massachusetts, Pennsylvania or New York course.

Ex Mayor Bigelow Dead.

BOSTON, July 5.—Ex Mayor Bigelow died yesterday, aged 74.

The Political Stir—The Dead March to Baltimore.

LEXINGTON, July 6.—In the address of Hon Jas P Holcomb before the Military Institute here on the 4th of July he said that the Government which had been thrust upon us by force we now accept without any expression of our principles. He says the future hope of the South lies in Union without malice between the sections. South Carolina for example would relapse into the barbarism of a West India province, but magnanimity will restore her friendship.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A number of delegates from this State to the Convention at Baltimore will leave the city to day. Among them Gov Hoffman, anti-Greeley Democrat.

The private conference to be held at Baltimore on Monday organized their convention on Tuesday at noon. They met at the Maryland Institute.

A Baltimore dispatch announces the arrival of a large number of delegates to the Democratic Convention, among them Senator Kelly of Oregon. It seems to be the general belief that Greeley will be nominated. There is comparatively little talk of candidates, the interest of the occasion being mostly centered in the selection of chairman of the National Executive Committee. If the officers of the convention there endorse Greeley an effort will be made to oust Belmont from the chairmanship of the committee, and an attempt will be made to give the place to Wm E Niblack, of Indiana. The southern delegates evince no disposition of selecting either a temporary or permanent chairman. Four of the Southern States are in favor of giving the former to the eastern or middle States and the latter to the western. A current is also running in favor of making Gen John A McClernand of Illinois president of the convention. The principal names mentioned for the temporary chairmanship are as follows: Gov Thomas of Maryland, Gov Vance of Illinois, Thos Brooks of Virginia. Gov Thomas will probably be the man.

The members of the National Committee who are in the city had a meeting to hear the report of the resident committee having in charge the arrangements for the meeting of the convention. The National Committee will confer again to morrow. If anything like a full meeting can be obtained, and the question of the temporary chairmanship will be discussed and probably decided.

Nothing has been heard as yet of a Bolters' Convention.

Thirty four new cases of sunstroke occurred. The number of deaths were 1[illegible].

WEST INDIES

Result of the Fannie's Expedition

HAVANA July 6.—Eight more of the men of the Fannie's expedition have been captured. Fifty four more cases of ammunition have been found. Twenty two of the expedition are still at large.

NASSAU, July 3.—Captain Speed, General Ryan and Captain George Browning of the steamer Fannie and twenty two of the crew arrived here. They report that the Fannie struck a reef off the coast of Cuba and after remaining there between thirty and forty hours during which time the steamer's supply of coal was thrown overboard to lighten her, the party on board succeeded in safely landing two pieces of cannon and several thousand arms. As the Fannie could not be floated she was set on fire and totally destroyed. The party then launched the ship's boats and started for the Bahamas and succeeded in reaching Long Island after three days sailing. The whole party was brought to Nassau by the schooner Clyde arriving on the 29th ult. They will start for New York to day.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

British Press on our Fourth

LONDON July 4.—The Daily Telegraph says this morning referring to the celebration of the Fourth of July by Americans throughout the Kingdom: These celebrations which were before sorely begrudged but of which we are honestly proud had a peculiar character yesterday following so closely on the settlement of the dispute over indirect claims. We think that the glorious Fourth is more honored as an anniversary of Vicksburg and Gettysburg. We have certainly forgotten whether Chesapeake beat Shannon or vice versa.

Testing a Turret Ship

LONDON July 5.—The iron turret ship Glatton was tested at Portland to day. The first shot fired made a hole in her turret 19 by 1[illegible] inches. It did her upper plates shattered her framework and started her joints in all directions. The second shot made a hole 1[illegible] inches in diameter and rebounding fell on the deck. Neither shot interfered with the revolving turret.

From Berlin and Berne

A Herald special says that Dodge interviewed the Indians reported to be hostile in the south, and gives assurance that they have no hostile intention.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—A fire occurred in a China cigar shop in Jobson's block, 612 Dupont street, near Sacramento this morning, and damaged about $5,000 worth of property. It was the work of an incendiary.

At a meeting of the Committee of One Hundred, Judge Hastings announced that as a citizen of San Francisco he had called on the Central Pacific Railroad officers since the last meeting, when Pixley made the suggestion that San Francisco should have a separate railroad of her own and not go in with the St Louis movement, and had been informed in reply to his question, that the Central would sell to the city of San Francisco the Southern Pacific Road for less than it cost and let the city go on with its construction on its own responsibility.

Most of the Committee look upon this proposition as intended to complicate matters, divide public opinion, and prevent the Committee from taking any decided action either way. The proposition will probably be rejected by a large majority of the Committee at the meeting on next Monday.

Captain Dryden, of the brig Sheet Anchor, running on the northern coast in the lumber trade, died on board the vessel and was buried at sea.

McBride, who ran over and fatally injured a boy named Irwin on Ellis street, last night, gave himself into the custody of the police, and the charge of manslaughter was entered against him, pending an investigation by the Coroner.

At a few minutes past 4 P M to day Shay & Dierdoff, Real Estate Agents, quarreled in Collins' saloon, corner Montgomery and California streets. Dierdoff seized a carving knife and advanced toward Shay, who drew a pistol and fired three shots, two of which took effect in Dierdoff's thigh as he ran through the hall leading towards Montgomery street. The wounds are not very serious. Ex Supervisor Kelly was sitting nearly in range, and called to Shay not to fire again at the first shot. Shay fired twice more when Kelly exclaimed, "d—n you, you will shoot me," or something to that effect, and fired, at Shay before the police, who had now arrived, could seize him. Shay and Kelly were both arrested. There were hundreds of people in the saloon or on the street toward which the shots were fired, and it is a wonder that nobody was killed. The affair created an intense excitement for a moment. There was no charge entered against Kelly, and it is said that instead of firing at Shay he only grappled with him to prevent his doing further mischief, when the latter's pistol was again fired in the scuffle. Shay and Dierdoff were released on nominal bail.

In the County Court to day the old and famous case of Bolack vs Schaffer involving the title to the Geyser Springs property, Sonoma county, which came here on change of venue, the Judge of Sonoma county being disqualified, came up for hearing. Motion to set aside the writ of Recession was argued and denied. The case has been decided in Sonoma county and the decision reversed in the Supreme Court, and like Jarndyce and Jarndyce has nearly ruined all parties connected with it.

LOS ANGELES July 6.—The Railroad Committee of Thirty met this afternoon pursuant to call. A proposal from Stanford & Co was reported, as follows: The Southern Pacific Railroad will build 50 miles in 30 months, from the line. The Los Angeles Company has had a favorable vote on the subsidy commencing at Los Angeles, provided favorable arrangements can be made with Los Angeles and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company which latter will be ascertained before the time of submitting the question to a vote. Bonds will only be required as the road is being built. Whenever five miles are built bonds will be issued for that amount, as five miles will be in proportion to the number of miles built through the county of Los Angeles. They will have nothing to do with any railroad outside of the main trunk, and will not be willing to give any portion of the subsidy granted towards building a road to Anaheim. This subsidy shall be an absolute donation and is understood to be five per cent on the assessed value of the real and personal property in the county of Los Angeles for the year 1872. The Committee of Thirty was appointed to confer personally with the various railroad corporations.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY [illegible]

Major Robert and his Order

For a month [illegible] more [illegible] the Major [illegible] in the al[illegible] Government [illegible] penalty atta[illegible] use of abusive language [illegible] against their superiors. W[illegible] these insane reproaches w[illegible] passing notice the utter [illegible] of [illegible] the little curs of their party [illegible] Looking through our exchanges we see the scurrilous language of the Corvallis [illegible] Salem Mercury and others of that ilk copied by prominent Democratic papers of the Eastern States and therefore we have taken the trouble to obtain from the U S Engineer's office the full text of the order which has so incensed our vituperative political opponents. Here it is

OFFICE OF THE LIGHTHOUSE ENGINEER
THIRTEENTH DISTRICT
Portland Oregon April 10th, [illegible]

Mr Hiram Ebright Lighthouse Overseer New port Oregon—Sir The following instructions are given you for your guidance

It is not the wish of the officer in charge to interfere in any way with the right of his employes to vote as they deem best. The ballot was intended to enable each citizen to vote without making known his sentiments and I do not wish this right practically interfered with by any [illegible] into the political views of employes. But on the other hand I must insist upon proper discipline and no man will be allowed upon the work who is guilty of using disrespectful language of his official superiors. Any remarks derogatory to the character or the official or private acts of the President of the United States, Secretary of the Treasury (under whom this work is carried on or any other superior officer of the United States Government must cause the immediate dismissal of the offender. It matters not whether the disrespectful language be used on or off duty, nor what the political views of the offender he must be discharged

You will please explain this to all employes under your orders, and to all applicants for work and require a strict adherence thereto on the part of the foreman. Copies of the enclosed notice [that copied by the paper—Ed] will be conspicuously displaced around the work

The right to vote as each man thinks best which should not be interfered with is entirely distinct from the right to abuse the President, which should not be accorded to any one in Government employ

Very respectfully your obedient servant
(Signed) HENRY M ROBERT
Light House Engineer

This letter was prompted, not as the Democratic press would wish to make the public believe by Gen Grant but by the complaint of a foreman in Maj Robert's employment, made personally to the Major, to the effect that several of the men on the work were in the habit of holding political discussions during working hours, and especially at dinner time on which occasions the vile and abusive language of the Democratic press was constantly quoted and freely flung about. When remonstrated with the men, of course stood upon their "rights" as American citizens, interpreting the Declaration of Independence to mean that all American citizens are endowed with certain inalienable rights among which are life liberty and freedom to abuse their official superiors to their hearts content, and that on Government works this can be especially indulged in at the dinner hour, when they are 'off duty' for sixty minutes

It is evident to every person of common sense that if the President of the United States had thought of descending so far as to dictate to an officer what kind of conversation he should permit among his employes he would have been much more likely to dictate what political class of men should be employed. But the whole point of Major Robert's order lies in the fact that Democrats are employed on the many Government works under his charge, and that the only demand made of them in addition to a fair day's labor for a fair day's pay is, that they shall refrain from using abusive language against the highest officials in the land while at work during their dinner hour, or in their places of resort in the evening

Now what gentleman can object to such regulations, so necessary to the preservation of discipline, without which no great engineering work can be carried on.

Should Major Robert use such language himself as he forbids among the workmen he employs he would lose his commission and by a law of Congress approved by President Jefferson on the 10th April 1806 be removed in disgrace from his rank in the profession to which he has devoted all the years of his mature life and all his energies. One of the sections of that statute contains this provision "Any officer who shall use contemptuous or disgraceful language against the President of the United States against the Vice President thereof, against the Congress of the United States etc, if a commissioned officer, shall be cashiered etc" And yet our gentlemanly Democratic editors demand that masons and hod carriers working under his direction shall have that "privilege" which the law of the good old days denies to him

We believe the Herald the chief organ of the Democracy of Oregon has said little or nothing about this matter. We do not remember to have seen in the columns of that paper any of the things which the small fry organs throughout the State have indulged in against the administration for this very proper order. The editor probably knows as do all persons in this community who know anything about it that Major Robert is a gentleman whose character is above reproach an energetic and faithful officer who has never allowed any inquisition of political views of the men in his employ Democrats and Republicans being treated by him alike. Moreover, that his assistant engineer and five out of seven of his permanent employes on the improvement of the Wallamet river are Democrats. They were on the work when Major Robert took charge, and having performed their duties faithfully they remain there

The upshot of the whole matter is that the Democracy are hunting with a keen scent for something on which to create an issue for the coming Presidential election and this is the only charge they have been able to bring against the Federal administration in Oregon.

Additional words of warning are at hand [illegible] the New York World. That paper tells those blind unreflecting Democrats who insist on the nomination of Mr Greeley at [illegible] more that they may do [illegible] there are hosts of Democrats [illegible] sooner vote for the eternal [illegible] than for a man who has for thirty years [illegible] assailant of their party

What a spectacle is th[illegible] We have the New York World the great organ of the Democratic party for many years pleading [illegible] its a straight Democratic nomination. But it's no use. Greeley is at the head of the Democratic party and he won't [illegible]

With its usual spirit of [illegible] the Herald contradicts our statement that Multnomah county for sixteen years has been strongly [illegible] Republican. What we assert is that Multnomah county for sixteen years has not except in a single instance which [illegible] particularized given a Democratic majority for member of Congress. In answer to the Herald we give the following [illegible] of Multnomah [illegible]

[illegible]

In [illegible] the figures and [illegible] majority on [illegible] The Herald [illegible] make the most of this [illegible] argument that Multnomah county is naturally Democratic and would have given a Democratic majority but for fraudulent voting

It is asserted by the Herald that J W Douglass Commissioner of Internal Revenue is a defaulter in the sum of $2 00[illegible] This charge was made by an Eastern journal more than a year ago but was replied and disproved. But we can tell the Herald who does owe the Government something which he ought to pay. It is Gen John Adair Mr Buchanan's Collector of Customs for the District of Oregon. There is due the Government from this individual as the books of the Department show $1 73[illegible] It has been due for many years. He never settled his account and is that much short. The other day the Herald had a very laudatory notice of him. But it didn't mention this little matter

By a printer's error we were made to say on Saturday that the subsidy granted for the construction of a railroad from Portland to the California line was $12 800 a mile. Of course the reading should have been 12 800 acres per mile. The context however indicated what the correction should be

From the Dalles Mountaineer. It is probable the public will have no regular theatrical amusements until the last of September

LETTER FROM SALEM

SALEM July [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

[illegible] July [illegible] would [illegible] Arctic [illegible] for tuns. The [illegible] advertising. [illegible] more healthy than lively. Business is encouraging [illegible] and if the Circuit Court wasn't engaged for the whole [illegible] considered dull here. But we [illegible] the entire community [illegible] and on Sometimes [illegible] found loafing about the town or the Court room and sometimes [illegible] wading through the grievances of the [illegible]

[illegible]

The last unfortunate Secretary has had a [illegible] fit with the law. Case No 1 resulted in acquittal because the jurors were made to doubt that legally technically at strictly or in any other than a Pickwickian sense did the missing money belong to the State. Because you see it was to pay for the keeping of an insane patient and would not be due until the aforesaid patient had been duly kept and being paid in advance didn't of course belong to the aforesaid State of Oregon. The defendant's lawyers and their numerous legion as was once said of a similar lot of fellows defied the other fellows to show any law to compel him to give up the money and assured the jury that had there been such law May would have turned it over and permit me to say here that there is not a particle of proof that he did not turn it over repeatedly. Well that was the fix the case was in, and the jury returned not guilty as charged in the indictment

Then they got another jury and took up case No 2 which was just such another and not to have justice fail of her high aim this time His Honor ( ) the Supreme Bench specimen who sits and hatches law here concluded to prosecute the case himself. The late public prosecutor was a poor stick but with the bench and the bar united in the work they hoped to make the second jury to see a very vision of judgment. In this case Ben Hayden took a hand and having been disgusted with the Judge and the rest of the prosecuting attorneys who went outside the case to make a winning game Ben thought he would promenade a little on the outside himself. He compared the rulings of the Court now with rulings last summer in a certain case when a notorious politician was indicted and the Judge silenced him. You had better believe Bonham wasn't a going to have any of Thayer's rulings in Bill Wall and's favor hoisted up into notoriety in that especial connection. Time and time again Ben was fetched up all standing and at last when he was pleasantly explaining to the jury how the Prosecuting Attorney and Judge had promised to dismiss the cases in case the com named in the indictments was forthcoming and had backed down since the late Democratic victory (!) the wrath of the virtuous Bonham boiled over and he threatened the vengeance of the law for contempt on Benjamin if he didn't subside and Ben subsided. But wasn't he wrathy? I rather think he was. He took spiritual consolation that evening, which made him humorous

A STORY OF A MULE

Ben Hayden is a handsome man and rides an intelligent mule something bigger than a Newfoundland canine and at this unfortunate moment some of the able assistants of the Judge in the prosecution commenced to bring Ben's mule into the conversation and came off second best when he curtly met them with a replication "that they ought to be content with owning and controlling the ass which sat on the bench, and not grudge him the ownership of his little mule." Ben's wit is rough, but it is quite a ready article and the foregoing will serve as an average sample. Hayden volunteered his services to help May and has made some able arguments in the several cases

The second jury couldn't agree at least two of them couldn't and after sitting up all night and coming into court looking like boiled owls without any verdict they were sent out again with more instructions than breakfast and then couldn't agree and were turned loose on society as disagreeable as possible

CASE NUMBER THREE

A third jury was empanelled yesterday and being composed of fresh material which hadn't been compromised it was hoped they would do something and sure enough they have brought in a verdict that May is not guilty as charged in the indictment. You see the everlasting indictments is what is the matter they won't hold water and every time a juror tries to understand one of them in the light of Oregon law it's too much for him. So have two entire precious summer weeks slipped by and nothing has panned out. Theory will soon be [illegible] The summer is over the harvest is ended and May is not convicted. Which leads me to

A FEW REFLECTIONS

It seems positive that whatever [illegible] May has been guilty of this court cannot find a conviction against him and very likely the matter may be given up and the remaining five cases dismissed. It is said that there was an understanding that if the money was [illegible] for the sums named in the bills of indictment they were to have been dropped. [illegible] raised and, I am told [illegible] but it was said that justice could not but [illegible] eyes to condone the matter. CITY.

ORIGIN OF THE TURN VEREINS.—Among the most interesting features of the procession on last Thursday, was the platform on a wagon, on which was placed an aged looking person in disguise representing Father Jahn, the founder of the Turn Verein organization. In the account of the celebration, but a passing remark was made in reference to this feature. As there are but few persons, except those who belong to the Turners, conversant with what was intended to be represented, the following in regard to Father Jahn and the origin and earlier history of the organization, may be of some interest:

In the earlier part of the eighteenth century, gymnastics were extensively introduced and cultivated into Prussian schools by Guts-Muths, who wrote several large works on the subject; and about 1810 the system was still more widely spread by Father Jahn, who may be correctly regarded as the founder of the present Turn Vereins. Prussia at that time was impatient under Napoleonic domination, and Father Jahn conceived the project of bringing together the youth for the practice of gymnastic exercises, and at the same time indoctrinate them with patriotic sentiments which might be rendered available to expel the French from Germany. The plan was approved by the Prussian Government, and in the spring of 1811 a public gymnastic school or Turn-Platz was opened at Berlin, which was quickly imitated all over the country. On the 3d of February, 1813, the King of Prussia called the citizens to arms against the French, when all those old enough to enter the military service joined the national cause, and performed signal service. Father Jahn himself commanded a battalion of volunteers, and after peace was restored returned to the gymnastic school which he founded. When, however, there was no longer any dread of invasion from the French Government, the Prussians, regarding the meetings of patriotic young men as a likely means of spreading and promulgating liberal ideas, closed these schools, and Father Jahn himself was imprisoned. In some other countries, however, the system introduced by Father Jahn was eminently successful, especially in England, Switzerland, Portugal and Denmark. At first it was introduced into female education under the name of calisthenics, where systemized exercises were added to hoop trundling, skipping ropes, the use of dumb-bells, etc., already usual among the girls, and to horsemanship, archery and other healthful out-door exercises among the women. The masculine sports of cricket, foot-ball, quoits, boxing, wrestling, base-ball, foot racing, etc., have been for centuries enjoyed by the boys of England in the play grounds attached to their schools. In the year 1848 the political condition of Europe enabled the Turn Vereins, as they were known by, to be re-organized, and the German emigration to the United States carried that institution with it. The first Turn Verein Society was organized in New York about the year 1850, but other similar associations soon spread over the United States.

The organization, as at first established, was confined to the practice of bodily exercises conducive to physical development; but it soon assumed a higher scope, without neglecting its original object; libraries were collected, schools were established, a newspaper [Turn Zeitung] was founded, and various arrangements were made for the diffusion of useful knowledge and for mutual culture. The different local organizations of the Turn Vereins hold annually a general meeting by means of delegates chosen, for the consideration of matters of common interest: they also have an annual Fest, attended by portions of the several organizations, wherein are exhibited gymnastic exercises, feats of strength, agility, etc. There are also several local festivals every year in the respective districts. The Turners of Portland held their Fest, it will be recollected, over a month ago, at the Canyon Garden and Skating Rink.

THE EXCURSION TO OREGON CITY.—Yesterday being a pleasant day, the excursion to Oregon City, under the management of Messrs. Holton and Dexter, took place, and many accepted the opportunity to visit Oregon City and the locks, and were well pleased with the trip. To those who strolled about the works on the locks and canal an interesting sight was presented. The "job" is an immense undertaking, and judging from the amount of work to be done it is fair to presume that it will take many months to complete it. Some two hundred and seventy men are now employed on the work. There has been over three hundred and fifty men employed at one time. Considerable carpenter work being ahead, men in that particular department have been dispensed with for the present. At the lower end, at one point, the lowest depth has been obtained some thirty-two feet below the level. At this place an elevator, driven by steam power is engaged in pumping water, which otherwise would impede the progress of the work. Along the line is a tramway on which cars are now used carrying stone and earth to necessary points. At the upper end, the work on the upper lock is under way and is well advanced. Four locks are to be constructed, and the sides of the canal are to be walled with wood. The distance from one end to the other is something over a quarter of a mile. Laborers find employment on the work without any trouble. Those who looked at the work were well repaid for the time spent. On the other side in the basin, lies eight boats of the Willamette Transportation Co., most of which are doing nothing the present season. The steamer Carrie lies below the city. The Woolen Mills, Flouring Mills and Bucket Factory are in full operation during working days. Mr. E. C. Holden, formerly of Portland, conducts the [illegible] House, which is a pleasant place. Many took occasion to call yesterday. The town yesterday presented a lively appearance in consequence of the presence of an unusual number of strangers. During the stay of the excursionists Capt. Pease took the boat as near as possible to the falls, which, upon close inspection, presented a most beautiful sight. Shortly after 5 o'clock the boat was headed down stream amid cheering from the excursionists and those on the shore. The East Portland Band playing a popular air. Good time was made homeward, and after running some distance below the city turned back and at 7 o'clock the boat touched the wharf and the excursion was at an end. In a word, the afternoon was spent most pleasantly, indeed.

THE DRAMA IN PORTLAND.—It is difficult to imagine any kind of a show, a type of which has not visited Portland at some time or other during the past few years. At times the people have been highly pleased and have received full return for the expense of maintaining a place of amusement in our midst. At others, the exhibitions, "shows," and so forth inflicted upon the public have been properly characterized as gross imposition. Mr. Bates was the first manager who succeeded in keeping up the dramatic season in our city for any length of time and his efforts, if we are correctly informed, were not at all remunerative to himself. Mr. Waldron, we should think, had been rather more successful, and yet with our limited knowledge of the expenses of the particular business, we should think the income in his case had not greatly exceeded the expenditures; for Mr. W. has spared no pains to elevate the character of the drama among us and to deserve the patronage of the intelligent portion of the community. The most refined in taste have had no cause to reject anything put on the stage in Portland, and no audience has ever been wearied by an "eternal repetition" of a single piece. To Mr. Waldron therefore belongs the merit of having furnished the citizens of Portland with a better, more elevated and refined and intellectual season of the drama than any they have ever enjoyed before. His last enterprise in securing the appearance of the celebrated Charles Vivian among us, is indicative of high energy, good judgment and fine taste in such matters. Mr. Vivian, during the season he has been among us, has given universal satisfaction to all appreciative persons who have listened to his entertaining songs and character specialties, and more than any other actor in his particular line appearing in Portland, has demonstrated the fact that amusement need not necessarily be mingled with vulgarity. His fine singing charms the ear, while his inimitable impersonations and wonderful facial expression often convulses his audience with hearty laughter. He is a master in his profession, and all who go to hear him will enjoy better health and live longer for it. We regret that all our citizens who would enjoy his exhibitions have not heard and seen the "great Vivian," for unless he should return we may long look in vain for his equal on a Portland stage.

SEASIDE ACCOMMODATIONS.—Heretofore Portlanders who have taken a "sniff" of sea air during the summer months at Clatsop beach have experienced some difficulty in obtaining those necessary accommodations which contribute to the pleasure of a few weeks' sojourn in that health imparting region. During the heated term several hundred of our citizens usually resort to the beach to spend a few days or weeks to recreate and seek a brief respite from the fatiguing labors of their varied avocations. The lack of accommodations is keenly felt by those used to the many nameless luxuries of city life, and unaccustomed to what is vulgarly termed "roughing it." Several philanthropic individuals, who have felt a humane interest in smoothing some of the asperities of camp life, besides adding at the same time to their pecuniary store, have expended considerable sums of money in erecting suitable buildings to accommodate the public. Portlanders who may visit Clatsop beach the present summer can confidently anticipate abundant provisions for sleeping and eating. The old Summer House, kept by Mrs. A. Cloutrie, is now open, and has been materially improved. The Grimes House has thrown its portals open to the public. It is a new house 30x[illegible] feet, three stories high, and contains fifty good sleeping apartments. This house is situated one mile north of the Summer House. The Ocean House, about three miles north of the Grimes House, and kept by Mr. Morrison, is a good place for sojourners. In addition, there is the Skipanon House, at Skipanon, kept by Mr. Peale, and Clatsop House at Skipanon, presided over by Mr. Wirt. A stage runs tri weekly between Astoria and the beach for the convenience of passengers, and also the United States mail, in connection with the mail from Portland.

WAS HE SOLD?—Our morning cotemporary was out in a half column "sensation" yesterday. A young, handsome and blushing maiden had disappeared: she had mysteriously disappeared—that is, to speak a little more pointedly, she had become desperately enamored of some gay "gambolier," and that the love sick twain had gathered up their sweet selves and "dusted." They had fled, far away to some happier and more congenial clime, where infuriated parents and desperate brothers with cow hides and derringers ceased from troubling, and where affection could forever rest. The article, too, was worked up in the writer's most felicitous style—racy, piquant, sensational; literally bristling with interrogation and exclamation points, piously sandwiched with consolatory reflection, and relieved at intervals by startling sub-heads in small caps, etc. We are confoundedly obtuse, we admit; but then, we don't exactly see what is so peculiarly "mysterious" about the affair, after all. From time immemorial, since the days when Mrs. Adam ate of the forbidden fruit, these syrens in silk, satin and calico have always followed perversely in the same beaten track. For this damsel in question to have answered with a scornful "No," matrimonial overture, and refused to fly to those ills of which she knew nothing, she would have been the exception and not the rule. Candidly, we imagine something is wrong about the affair, for after the most persistent and careful inquiries, our efforts have been unrewarded. Can it be possible that the writer is the victim of misplaced confidence again?

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—On last Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the funeral obsequies of the late Chas. F. Weigand took place from his residence on Third street. The remains were first taken to the First Presbyterian Church, where the Rev. Dr. Lindsley officiated in the funeral ceremonies, and subsequently removed to the Lone Fir Cemetery, and deposited in their final resting place. The procession was one of the largest we have ever seen in this city, it being nearly equal in numbers to those of Mayor Holmes and Capt. Couch. First came the Aurora Band, playing the funeral dirge in soft, sweet and subdued strains, the members of Portland, Willamette, Harmony and Oregon Lodges A. F. and A. M., the members of the German Aid Society, and followed by a long cortege of carriages occupied with relatives and sympathizing friends of the deceased. At the Cemetery the body was buried with the usual impressive rites of Masonry, of which Order he was a member in high standing.

THROUGH TO OAKLAND.—Oregon can now boast of 181 miles of railroad. Passengers can step on board the cars at the east side depot and pass through to Oakland by rail without interruption. In another column will be seen the change in time schedule made by the Oregon & California Railroad Company. Daily trains will arrive and depart as follows: Leave Portland at 8:15 A. M.; arrive at Oakland 7 P. M.; leave Oakland 5:20 A. M.; arrive at Portland at 4:15 P. M. Freight trains, with passenger cars attached, will run daily, Sundays excepted, as follows: Leave Portland 6:15 A. M.; arrive at Eugene City at 6 P. M.; leave Eugene City at 6 A. M.; arrive at Portland 6:15 P. M. Close connections are made at Oakland with the stages of the Oregon & California Stage Company. Tickets for sale to all the principal points in Oregon, California and the East, at the Company's office. The new time table took effect yesterday morning at 2:20 o'clock.

FOR PORTLAND.—The steamer Ajax sailed from San Francisco on last Saturday morning for Portland. She has on board the following passengers: B W Waldron and wife, Rev J H Braly and family, Mrs Van Bessler, J B Lewis, J Burris, Gov Abernethy and wife, Mrs Bonnell, G H Adams A Oberdorfer, L J N Ross and family, J W Smith, H C Shovey, S Klein and family, S Miller, M Lorch, H H Spencer, J R Booth, Mrs J Heaton, Mrs E C Bryant and two children, W S Sheldon and wife, Miss H Lance, Mrs E C Brigham and child, W T Libby, Miss Malderman, Thos Owens and two sons, A W Claflin, Capt H M Smith U S A, D Linderman, T C Hilton, A Hilton, Rev W May, S W Small, Mrs E Messiro and child, J B Rickett and wife, Rev H Lowenthal, M G Williams and wife, J S Capp.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers elect and appointed, of Hassalo Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., were installed in ample form by the M. W. Grand Master J. T. Apperson, on Friday evening last, viz. Chas. W. Parrish, N. G.; John M. Breck, V. G.; James A. Smith, R. S.; Ward S. Stevens, P. S.; A. G. Walling, Treas.; Andrew Hill, W.; S. B. Parrish, C.; D. Sprague, O. G.; W. S. James, I. G.; A. N. Gamble, R. S. N. G.; J. M. Williamson, L. S. N. G.; James Lotan, R. S. V. G.; J. F. Davies, L. S. V. G.; W. V. Johnson, R. S. S., Richard Bird, L. S. S.

DINNER ON THE FOURTH.—The kindhearted and benevolent ladies composing the Unitarian Sewing Society, sent a splendid dinner to the inmates of the Poor House, on the Fourth, consisting of pies, cakes, sweetmeats, etc., etc. It was a great treat to those unfortunate persons, and one which they did not fail to heartily appreciate. The bountiful store of provisions sent out by these charitable ladies was sufficient to last a week or more. In the afternoon of the Fourth, Rev. T. L. Eliot went out and preached a sermon to the inmates.

LITTLE SLOOP.—The little sloop, built by Mr W. P. Burk, of this city, an account of which we gave some months ago, was launched Saturday at Flanders' wharf. She has been "dubbed" the Annie Devlin, in honor of that heroine of Irish history, who suffered so much for the lamented Robert Emmet, in refusing to disclose his whereabouts to his enemies. The Annie Devlin is a snug built and trim looking little craft. She is of about twenty five tons register. The owner intends to make a visit to San Francisco in the craft some time during the summer.

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE.—The first annual examination of this new institution, established but a few months ago, occurred last Wednesday. Very Rev. J. F. Fierens, V. G., visited the College on that day and the boys were put through a rigid examination which resulted to the credit of the scholars and to the honor of the Principal of the institution, Rev. A. J. Glorieux, and his zealous Assistant, Rev. John Heinrich. The next term will begin about the middle of next August.

CELEBRATION MATTERS.—We are requested to state that the several committees in the late celebration which have contracted debts are requested to present all the claims to the auditing committee, so that the same may be audited and paid. This committee consists of the following gentlemen: Messrs. D. W. Burnside, S. Norris and David C. Lewis. This evening a meeting will be held at the Armory by the general committee at 8 o'clock, sharp, to settle up the business and liquidate the indebtedness incurred.

LECTURE.—We learn that Mr. Stephen Maybell, the young gentleman who read the original poem at the celebration on the Fourth, contemplates delivering a lecture in this city at an early day, interspersed with recitations of his own poems. Such a lecture from Mr. Maybell will doubtless be replete with interest and information, and we hope the public will not withhold that measure of support and countenance necessary to make the effort successful.

OPEN AIR MEETING.—The open air religious meeting, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., in front of the Court House, yesterday afternoon, was well attended. The building afforded ample protection from the sun, the exercises were interesting and on the whole the meeting was successful. Another appointment was made at the same place for next Sunday [illegible].

VENTURESOME.—The other day we observed a [illegible] venturesome [illegible] climbing fearlessly at and the top of the new spire of the Trinity Church. From the careless manner in which it was performed we opine that if the practice is extensively indulged in the undertaker will not be out of a job long.

APPOINTMENT.—On Saturday morning the County Court appointed T. J. Dryer Justice of the Peace for Washington precinct, the person elected for that precinct having failed to qualify. Mr. Dryer will enter upon his duties this morning.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—The regular monthly missionary concert took place at the Taylor street church yesterday afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. The exercises consisted of addresses, essays, recitations and selections of music.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department met last Saturday evening at the Police Court room, but no quorum being present the Board adjourned to meet again on Saturday next.

MONTHLY MEETING.—The Y. M. C. A. will hold their regular monthly meeting at their rooms to-night. Their anniversary meeting will be held at the Taylor M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

THE MAILS.—The mails for the South close at 7:[illegible] A. M. and arrive at 4:30 P. M. On Sundays the Postoffice will be kept open from 5 to 6 o'clock P. M. Cut this out and keep it before you.

BREVITIES.

General school vacation.

Wasn't it delightful yesterday?

Blackberry parties are getting fashionable.

Oregon apples are in the market—early varieties.

Faro and poker are said to be running as lively as ever.

Croquet and base ball have been shelved for the present.

Yesterday was too pleasant to remain indoors and too warm to promenade.

During the past month suicides and murders have been unpleasantly frequent.

Col. Chapman will issue his railroad journal sometime during the present week.

Fleas and bed bugs are in abundance, audacious and without native modesty either.

The Lock and Dam swindle was yesterday inspected by a number of Portlanders.

Mayor Wasserman was serenaded at his residence, by the Aurora band, on Saturday evening.

The Emma Hayward has been taken to the boneyard. The Oneonta will take her place on the route.

Joaquin Miller now does his long luxuriant hair up in pins because the boys laughed at the length of his locks.

The Ajax will be due at this port on Thursday evening. She brings a full cargo—850 tons of assorted freight.

A small sloop came up from some point below, loaded with tan bark for one of the tanneries above the city.

Falling—The river, and Greeley-Brown stock. One for the want of water, the other for want of whisky. "Sich is life!"

The Mr. and Mrs. "Lo" and numerous little "Lo's" are engaged in peddling blackberries around the streets—50 cents per gallon.

Water falling—keep feet warm, head cool, don't eat cucumbers, partake moderately of wine and ice cream, deodorize, and defy the ague.

Dr. Glisy's Pioneer Band of Aurora favored us with a serenade the other evening. They have our thanks for their kind attention to this office.

We hear of a good many counterfeit half dollars now in circulation. Always carefully examine the change handed you, it will save you chagrin.

Look out for your bovines, equines, porcines, and all the other "ines," now that an ordinance has passed the Common Council and received the approval of the Mayor.

To accommodate the large numbers who attended the funeral of the late Mr. Wiegand, on last Saturday, the two ferry boats at Stark street were lashed together—end to end—and both run over by the same cable.

AMUSEMENTS.

On Thursday evening of this week Mr. R. Clinton, a young and favorite actor, too well known in this city to require recommendation, and James Lawler, Treasurer of the Waldron Dramatic Troupe, will be the recipients of a complimentary benefit, jointly. There will be a host of volunteer talent, including Vivian, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron, and others. The bill will be announced in proper time.

J. H. Vinson, well known in this city, was tendered a complimentary benefit at the Metropolitan Theater, San Francisco, on the 30th. Among those who volunteered on the occasion were Wm. Barry, Geo. Bird and Chas. Nickerson.

Cogill & Cooper and Chas. Vincent were in Denver on the 29th ult. with a company styled "The California Minstrels."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

We invite special attention to the new advertisement of Messrs. Gill, Steel & Bancroft. Mr. Bancroft (late of Bancroft & Morse) has dissolved partnership, and added his large stock of books, stationery, etc., etc., to the already splendid stock of Messrs. Gill & Steel. This firm now can present to the public the most magnificent assortment in their line of any house north of San Francisco. Read their advertisement in another column.

Read the advertisement of J. M. Gonway & Co., sole agents of the celebrated Blue Grass whisky, for the Pacific Slope, the Islands, Japan and China.

A MAN NEVER FEELS HAPPIER than when he is situated inside of a suit of clothes that fit him to a dot. Now, if desirous of feeling in a happy mood leave your measure with the A No. 1 Cutter who has recently taken charge of the manufacturing department of Fishel & Roberts' Clothing House, corner of First and Washington streets. There you find the best Cloths, Furnishing Goods and other articles that go to make up the dress of a gentleman. Further comment is unnecessary.

Suggestions for Summer
It is of great importance that the system should be in a vigorous condition when the hot weather commences. The effects of a high temperature upon an enfeebled frame are always more or less disastrous. The loss of substance and the exhaustion of nervous power, occasioned by excessive heat, can only be compensated by the active, healthful, and regular exercise of all the bodily functions by which the waste of nature is repaired and the vital energies renewed. The great utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a means of toning, invigorating and regulating the organs of the body, is universally acknowledged. [illegible]

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.—1860—X.
This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

My Ships at Sea

[illegible] many ships I [illegible] sea—
[illegible] with hope [illegible] full [illegible]
[illegible] return to [illegible]
Ships that I [illegible] freighted with my [illegible]
Drifted away beyond recall
[illegible] storms will [illegible]
And ships [illegible] at sea

How [illegible] with [illegible]
With sunlight [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
Until my ships [illegible]
The blue [illegible] sky
[illegible]
Just where [illegible]
They vanished— [illegible]

But storms will [illegible]
My ships are driven to and fro—
And some go down at sea
And some [illegible] wrecks [illegible]
More hull and spar [illegible]
With all their [illegible]
Float back to me

And when I sigh o'er what [illegible]
Weep o'er my [illegible] so tempest [illegible]
So cheerless and so drear
Why trust frail barks upon this sea
What bring they back but grief [illegible] me
But grief and pain and misery
To rend my soul with fear

These shattered wrecks the cruel sea
Cast on the shore to torture me
Are filled with phantoms dread
Phantoms of all I've lost before—
Of hopes and joys dead in the [illegible]
Of hopes and loves that [illegible] no more
And with these dead [illegible]
Come other dead to mock me sore—
The cruel living dead

But still forgetting all my pain—
My barks I launch upon the main
To cross the heaving sea
Hoping that when all storms are past
Some sunny port I'll reach at last
To find with joy all anchored fast,
My ships awaiting me

The Cardiff Giant

This gentleman has been dug up again Professor McWhorter of New Haven has contributed to the July [illegible] an article concerning him In this article he discusses the origin and authenticity of the Cardiff giant under the title of Tammuz and the Mound Builders The Cardiff giant he claims to be a statue of Tammuz, or the Phœnician Adonis The markings upon the right arm he considers a Phœnician inscription, and translates thus Lord Tammuz of the Heavens Baal "A Phœnician inscription, he says, 'is not in any case easily gotten up ' The Cardiff gentleman seems to have been resurrected again very opportunely for receiving the nomination at Baltimore A summary of McWhorter's article is as follows

The conditions in which this particular inscription appears upon the statue under the microscope, are such as to preclude the possibility of its having been placed there within any recent period. It is only some thirty years since the Phœnician alphabet was first classified by Gesenius. This inscription could not be made up to-day out of any collated alphabets that exist, the form and arrangement of the letters being peculiar and yet distinctly Phœnician. The shape of the "giant's" head is cited as another proof of its Phœnician origin, conforming as it does to the type head of the American mound builders Yet another so-called proof is the extraordinary polish of the surface, which is not unlike the polish with which the Phœnicians decorated and preserved their statues The peculiarities of the giant, its traces of wings, and the cup-like depressions in the back resembling eyes, correspond in a measure with the description of the ancient Baal, who was represented with eyes before and behind, and four wings. Our friend of Cardiff, then, was carved by the Phœnicians, and was brought across the ocean by a colony in some one of those large and famous 'ships of Tarshish" with which they carried on a commerce and carried on and discovered and acquired colonial possessions with an energy and success superior to the other Eastern nations The stone god found a resting place in North America with its colony of mound-builders, who established with like colonies a vast agricultural civilization between the Mississippi and the Atlantic Nomadic northern tribes harassed these mound-builders, internal dissensions divided them, they were nearly exterminated in a great battle near Onondaga, and about the time of the descent of the barbarians of the north upon Rome, the parallel mound building civilization in America was broken through and trampeled down by the Tartar nomades of the North-west. They appear to have followed in successive waves, beating against the fortified line of the Ohio, which they finally forced through and fought their battle of Chalons on the dark and bloody ground of Kentucky But these Huns of the North-west rolled the mound-building civilization southward and into the sea. Whether the final battles at Onondaga, which determined the fate of the North-eastern mound-builders, occurred before or after this event the writer does not say He only knows that at some distant period the great statue brought in a ship of Tarshish across the Sea of Atl, lying in its resting-place, was lightly covered with twigs and flowers, and then of gravel The tree under whose shadow it had reposed was caused to fall with branches extending over and protecting the slightly raised mound Here it was, perhaps, left for its winter burial, looking toward a resurrection in the spring Passing centuries have, in the opinion of the antiquarian, laid over both mound and tree and alluvial deposit, the depth of which, when calculated with all the data accurate topographical investigation alone can give, may yield a measure of time.

There is a small cave near the Thompson depot on the Boston, Hartford and Erie Rail road, which is reported to be the head quarters of a band of robbers, counterfeiters and thieves. A short time ago about forty men and boys from Grosvenordale, under the command of one of the citizens, started out with the determination to capture the robbers Three small boys, hearing of the brave act, resolved on some sport. They borrowed an old cannon and two shot guns, and started for the cave When the attacking party arrived within about twenty feet of the cave, the boys discharged their pieces and gave a general yell, when the party led by the gallant commander, retreated back to Grosvenordale, very much demoralized, with the loss of hats guns etc The next morning quite a number of the force were excused from duty by the surgeon

A new plan for concentrating and softening the light of gas jets has just been invented The half of a hollow glass globe filled with water is suspended under the flame It is said to give a soft, steady, mellow light quite agreeable to the eyes, and protecting the head from the heat of the flame

Three-fourths of one per cent of ash of corn cobs is pure carbonate of potash If all the corn cobs annually raised in the United States were manipulated for their potash it would yield 115 500 000 pounds of the alkali

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

[illegible]

1 [illegible] The Republican party of the United States [illegible]

[illegible]

4 The National Government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public positions without practically creating a life tenure of office

6 We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people

7 The annual revenue after paying current expenditures should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt and except [illegible] may be derived from a tax [illegible] should be raised by duties upon importations which should be adjusted [illegible] to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union [illegible] [illegible] those who died for their country [illegible] [illegible] grateful people [illegible] [illegible]

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance [illegible] [illegible] the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by [illegible] it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts in any form or disguise as a national crime We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party propose to respect all the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National government

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment practical wisdom incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken down [illegible] tions disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life In this horrid strait thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many [illegible] doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] and other places Be therefore careful and make [illegible] inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these [illegible] [illegible]
